Objectives

- Obtain a basic understanding of privacy provisions under IDEA and FERPA
- Review some upcoming guidance from the U.S. Department of Education
- Understand where to go to for help

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

- FERPA provides parents the right to
 - inspect and review education records;
 - seek to amend education records; and
 - consent to the disclosure of personally identifiable information from education records, except as provided by law.

Part B of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)

§ 300.610 Confidentiality of Information

“The Secretary takes appropriate action, in accordance with section 444 of GEPA [FERPA], to ensure the protection of the confidentiality of any personally identifiable data, information, and records collected or maintained by the Secretary and by SEAs and LEAs pursuant to Part B of the Act, and consistent with §§ 300.611 through 300.627.”

Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)

§ 303.402 Confidentiality

“The Secretary takes appropriate action [FERPA]...to ensure protection of the confidentiality of any personally identifiable data, information, and records collected or maintained by the Secretary and lead agencies and EIS providers ...consistent with §§ 303.401 - 303.417. The regulations in §§ 303.401 - 303.417 ensure protection of the confidentiality of any personally identifiable data, information, and records collected or maintained pursuant to Part C by the Secretary and participating agencies, including the State lead agency and EIS providers, in accordance with [FERPA].”

Early Childhood Education Program Definition

According to 20 USCS § 1003(8), the term “early childhood education program” means –

“(A) a Head Start program or an Early Head Start program carried out under the Head Start Act (42 U.S.C. 9831 et seq.), including a migrant or seasonal Head Start program, an Indian Head Start program, or a Head Start program or an Early Head Start program that also receives State funding;

| Participating agency <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Any individual, agency, entity, or institution that collects, maintains, or uses personally identifiable information to implement the requirements in part C.• Includes any individual or entity that provides any part C services.• Does not include primary referral sources or public agencies or private entities that act solely as funding sources for Part C services. | Participating agency <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Any agency or institution that collects, maintains, or uses personally identifiable information, or from which information is obtained under Part B. | Educational agency or institution <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Any public or private agency or institution that provides educational services and/or instruction to students; or is authorized to direct and control public elementary or secondary, or postsecondary educational institutions; and• to which funds have been made available under any program administered by the Secretary |

FERPA and Funding

- Elementary and secondary schools that receive funds under any program administered by the Secretary of Education are subject to FERPA.
- Postsecondary institutions that receive funds under any program administered by the Secretary of Education are subject to FERPA.
- Most private schools at the elementary, secondary levels do not receive such funds and are, therefore, not subject to FERPA.
- FERPA applies to only those early childhood programs that receive funds under programs administered under U.S. Department of Education.

What records are covered?

| IDEA Part C | IDEA Part B | FERPA |
|--|---|--|
| IDEA Part C Early Intervention Records All records regarding a child that are required to be collected, maintained, or used under Part C 303.403(b) | IDEA Part B Education Records The type of records covered under the definition of “education records” in FERPA Records that are collected, maintained, or used 300.611(b) | FERPA Education Records Records that are – Directly related to student; and Maintained by an educational agency or institution or by a party acting for the agency or institution 99.3 |

FPCO Letter to Edmunds (2012)

- “Early intervention records” is the same as “education records” for purposes of the confidentiality protections under IDEA Part C and FERPA.
- If early intervention records are covered under FERPA and IDEA Part C, those records are exempt as PHI under the HIPAA Privacy Rule .

When does this apply?

| IDEA Part C | IDEA Part B | FERPA |
|--|--|--|

What else applies? - HIPAA

- Law establishes standards and imposes requirements to protect the privacy of individually identifiable health information.
- Records that are subject to FERPA are not subject to the HIPAA Privacy Rule (see page 82483, Federal Register, Vol. 65, No. 250, December 28, 2000).
- Other HIPAA Rules may apply.
- Health records on students, including immunization records, maintained by an educational agency or institution subject to FERPA are “education records” subject to FERPA.

What is Personally Identifiable Information (PII)?

Name

Mother's maiden name

Address

Date of birth
Place of birth

Social Security Number

Names of parent or other family members

What is Personally Identifiable Information (PII) under FERPA?

- PII is information from education records that would make the student's identity easily recognized (by itself or in combination with other factors).
- Some examples of PII:
 - Full Name
 - Child ID Number
 - Age AND Race/Ethnicity

What else is Personally Identifiable Information (PII)?

FERPA - 99.3 (PII)

- Info. that, alone or in combination, is linkable to a specific student that would allow a reasonable person in the school community, who does not have personal knowledge of the relevant circumstances, to identify the student with reasonable certainty.
- Info. requested by a person whom the educational agency or institution reasonably believes knows the identity of the student to whom the education record relates.

What does IDEA say?

| IDEA Part C | IDEA Part B |
|--|---|
| PII definition refers to FERPA PII definition Except-- <ul style="list-style-type: none">student=childschool=EIS provider | <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) The name of the child, the child's parent, or other family member;(b) The address of the child;(c) A personal identifier, such as the child's social security number or student number; or(d) A list of personal characteristics or other information that would make it possible to identify the child with reasonable certainty. |

Inspection and Review of Education Records - FERPA

- School must comply with request within 45 days.
- Schools are generally required to give copies only if failure to do so would effectively deny access or make other arrangements to inspect and review – example would be a parent or student who does not live within commuting distance.
- School may not destroy records if request for access is pending.

May an educational agency or institution charge a fee for copies of education records?

- Yes – unless imposing a fee effectively prevents a parent or eligible student from exercising his or her right to inspect and review education records.

What limitations exist on the right to inspect and review education records?

- If the records contain information on more than one student, the requesting parent or eligible student may inspect, review, or be informed of only the specific information about his or her child's records.

What does IDEA say about this?

IDEA Part C

Inspect and review any early intervention records ... collected, maintained, or used by the agency ...without unnecessary delay and before any meeting regarding an IFSP, or any due process hearing, and in no case more than 10 days after the request has been made.

303.405

IDEA Part B

Inspect and review any education records ...that are collected, maintained, or used by the agency ...without unnecessary delay and before any meeting regarding an IEP, or any due process hearing, or resolution session, and in no case more than 45 days after the request has been made.

What does IDEA say about this?

IDEA Part C

Participating agency --

May charge a fee for copies of records that are made for parents under this part if the fee does not effectively prevent the parents from exercising their right to inspect and review those records, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

May not charge a fee to search for or to retrieve information.

Must provide at no cost to parents, a copy of each evaluation, assessment of the child, family assessment, and IFSP as soon as possible after each IFSP meeting.

Must make available at no cost an initial copy of early intervention record.

IDEA Part B

Participating agency

May charge a fee for copies ...unless imposing a fee effectively prevents a parent or eligible student from exercising his or her rights to inspect and review education records.

May not charge a fee to search for or to retrieve the education records of a student.

What are the Procedures for Amending Education Records? - FERPA

School must decide within reasonable period of time whether to amend as requested.

- If school decides not to amend, school must inform parent or eligible student of right to a hearing.
- After a hearing, if decision is still not to amend, parent or eligible student has a right to insert a statement in the record.

What does IDEA say about this?

IDEA Parts C and B

- A parent who believes that the information in the record is inaccurate, misleading, or violates the privacy or other rights of the child can request that the record be amended.
- The agency must decide whether to amend the information within a reasonable period of time.
- If the agency refuses to amend the information, it must inform the parent of the refusal and advise the parent of right to a hearing.
- After hearing, if decision is still not to amend, parent has a right to insert a statement in the record.

303.410 (Part C) & 300.618 (Part B)

Record of Access

IDEA Part C and B

Contain recordkeeping requirements for participating agencies.

Keep a record of parties obtaining access to records collected, maintained, or used under IDEA (except for parents and authorized employees, and for Part C, authorized representatives); Include name of party, day access given, and purpose for which the party is authorized to use the records.

FERPA

Contains recordkeeping requirements for both schools and SEAs.

Be maintained as long as record is maintained;
Include parties who requested or received information; and

The participating agency--
Must inform parents when PII collected, maintained, or used is no longer needed to provide services.
Must destroy information at parent's request (once it is no longer needed).
May keep permanent record with child's name, contact and other info.

The consent must:

- specify records that may be disclosed;
- state purpose of disclosure; and
- identify party or class of parties to whom disclosure may be made.

Consent Provisions – Part B

(a) Parental consent must be obtained before personally identifiable information is disclosed to parties, other than officials of participating agencies in accordance with paragraph (b)(1) of this section, unless the information is contained in education records, and the disclosure is authorized without parental consent under 34 CFR part 99.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (b)(2) and (b)(3) of this section, parental consent is not required before personally identifiable information is released to officials of participating agencies for purposes of meeting a requirement of this part.

(2) Parental consent, or the consent of an eligible child who has reached the age of majority under State law, must be obtained before personally identifiable information is released to officials of participating agencies providing or paying for transition services in accordance with 300.321(b)(3).

(3) If a child is enrolled, or is going to enroll in a private school that is not located in the LEA of the parent's residence, parental consent must be obtained before any personally identifiable information about the child is released between officials in the LEA where the private school is located and officials in the LEA of the parent's residence.

Consent Provisions – Part C

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, prior parental consent must be obtained before personally identifiable information is—

- (1) Disclosed to anyone other than authorized representatives, officials, or employees of participating agencies collecting, maintaining, or using the information under this part, subject to paragraph (b) of this section; or
- (2) Used for any purpose other than meeting a requirement of this part.

(b) A lead agency or other participating agency may not disclose personally identifiable information, as defined in §303.29, to any party except participating agencies (including the lead agency and EIS providers) that are part of the State's part C system without parental consent unless authorized to do so under—

One of the exceptions enumerated in 34 CFR 99.31 (where applicable to part C), which are expressly adopted to apply to part C through this reference. In applying the exceptions in 34 CFR 99.31 to this part, participating agencies must also comply with the pertinent conditions in 34 CFR 99.32, 99.33, 99.34, 99.35, 99.36, 99.38, and 99.39; in applying these provisions in 34 CFR part 99 to part C,

(c) The lead agency must provide policies and procedures to be used when a parent refuses to provide consent under this section (such as a meeting to explain to parents how their failure to consent affects the ability of their child to receive services under this part), provided that those procedures do not override a parent's right to refuse consent under §303.420.

FERPA - What are the exceptions to general consent?

- To school officials with legitimate educational interests (defined in annual notification);
- To schools in which a student seeks or intends to enroll;

- Disclosure permitted when: the CWA is “legally responsible... for the care and protection of the student”
- Provisions for tribal organizations as well

FERPA/Part C Crosswalk

Privacy Scenario

- A community-based organization that has programs for children with special needs approaches you regarding their programs and asks for the name, address, and telephone number of parents with students in your school who have a disability in order to contact parents regarding their programs.
- You like the programs offered by the organization and believe the programs may be of benefit to the students with disabilities in your school and their parents. Can you share the data with the organization?

Directory Information Exception

Information in a student's education records that would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed

Directory Information Exception

- May include:
 - name, address, phone number, and e-mail address
 - photograph
 - date and place of birth
 - most recent school attended; grade level and major field of study
 - dates of attendance (e.g., year or semester)
 - participation in officially recognized sports and activities; height and weight of athletes,
 - degrees, honors, and awards received, and
- Can never include social security number
- Can't disclose non-directory information with directory information

Directory Information

- Public notice must be given to parents of students in attendance and eligible students in attendance.
- Parents may choose to “opt-out” of the disclosure of directory information on their child.
- School may adopt a limited directory information policy that allows for the disclosure of directory information to specific parties, for specific purposes, or for both.

Pop Quiz

Mr. Gray is a parent volunteer in your kindergarten class. Mr. Gray's assignment is to work with a small group of students with IEPs on math skills. You provide him with math assessments and other math related information from the special education records of each individual student he is assisting.

Is it permissible for you to share the individual math test scores and other related information with Mr. Gray without the consent or knowledge of the parents of the students?

School Official Exception

- Schools may disclose PII from education records without consent if the disclosure is to other school officials, including teachers, within the school whom the school has determined to have legitimate educational interest.
- Annual notification of FERPA rights must include criteria for determining who constitutes a school official and what constitutes a legitimate educational interest.

- Outsourcing services under school official exception
 - Schools may outsource institutional services or functions that involve the disclosure of education records to contractors, consultants, volunteers, or other third parties provided certain conditions are met.
 - If these outside parties meet the conditions for outsourcing, they may have access to education records.

- Conditions for outsourcing:
 - Performs an institutional service or function for which the agency or institution would otherwise use employees;
 - Is under the direct control of the agency or institution with respect to the use and maintenance of education records;
 - PII from education records may be used only for the purposes for which the disclosure was made;
 - Meets the criteria specified in the school, LEA, or institution's annual notification of FERPA rights for being a school official with a legitimate educational interest in the education records.

Answer

Can Mr. Gray see the student data?

Yes. In this case, Mr. Gray is providing a service the school would otherwise be performing.

Remember to check the definition of a school official in your annual notification

Audit or Evaluation Exception

- Federal, State, and local officials listed under § 9.31(a)(3), or their authorized representative, may have access to education records only –
 - in connection with an audit or evaluation of federal or state supported education programs; or
 - for the enforcement of or compliance with federal legal requirements which relate to those programs.
- The information must be:
 - protected in a manner that does not permit disclosure of PII to anyone; and
 - destroyed when no longer needed for the purposes listed above.

Discussion Question

- Who in the audience has an Early Childhood Integrated Data System (ECIDS)?
- Who has worked with the written agreements used in the data sharing with your ECIDS?

Note on the Studies Exception

- The "Audit/Evaluation" exception in 34 CFR §§99.31(a)(3) and 99.35 is the most appropriate exception under IDEA and FERPA for data sharing arrangements for the IDEA early childhood community. In the very limited instance in which IDEA Part C or IDEA Part B section 619 agencies or programs propose to consider using the "Studies" exception under FERPA, such agencies and programs will want to consult with the Department's Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) and Family Policy Compliance Office (FPCO) regarding how the proposed data sharing would meet the requirements in 34 CFR §§99.31(a)(6) and 303.414 (for IDEA Part C) and 34 CFR §§99.31(a)(6) and 300.622 (for IDEA Part B Section 619).

What Is a Data Sharing Agreement?

- It can be called many different names: MOU, MOA, Contract, Written Agreement, etc.
- The mandatory elements of the agreement vary slightly between the two exceptions.
- The data sharing checklist delineates the minimum requirements under the Studies and the Audit or Evaluation exceptions.

Key Points to Remember

- Properly de-identified data can be shared without any FERPA considerations and should be your FIRST option as it limits the risk of unauthorized PII disclosure.
- In most cases, consent is the best approach for sharing PII with non-profit organizations.
- Directory Information is often misunderstood. Opt-out provisions do not prevent data from being shared under the Audit/Evaluation or School Official exceptions.

FERPA – Notice to Parents

Schools must annually notify parents of students and eligible students in attendance of their rights under FERPA.

IDEA Notice Provisions – Part B

(a) The SEA must give notice that is adequate to fully inform parents about the requirements of Sec. 300.123, including--

(1) A description of the extent that the notice is given in the native languages of the various population groups in the State;

(2) A description of the children on whom personally identifiable information is maintained, the types of information sought, the methods the State intends to use in gathering the information (including the sources from whom information is gathered), and the uses to be made of the information;

(3) A summary of the policies and procedures that participating agencies must follow regarding storage, disclosure to third parties, retention, and destruction of personally identifiable information; and

(4) A description of all of the rights of parents and children regarding this information, including the rights under FERPA and implementing regulations in 34 CFR part 99.

(b) Before any major identification, location, or evaluation activity, the notice must be published or announced in newspapers or other media, or both, with circulation adequate to notify parents throughout the State of the activity.

IDEA Notice Provisions – Part C

 - (b) A summary of the policies and procedures that participating agencies must follow regarding storage, disclosure to third parties, retention, and destruction of personally identifiable information;

 - (d) A description of the extent that the notice is provided in the native languages of the various population groups in the State.

IDEA Part B – Lists and Types of Information

- IDEA Part B – Section 300.616
 - Each participating agency must provide parents on request a list of the types and locations of education records collected, maintained, or used by the agency.

* 34 CFR part 99 = FERPA

IDEA Safeguards

- IDEA Part B – Section 300.623 (d) and IDEA Part C – Section 303.415 (d)
 - Each participating agency must maintain, for public inspection, a current listing of the names and positions of those employees within the agency who may have access to personally identifiable information.

Emailing Student Records

Can you e-mail IEPs?

- Yes, providing the agency and the parent agree that there are sufficient safeguards in the process

Early Childhood Data Privacy

States, communities, and local providers are using data to serve the needs of children and families participating in early childhood programs (e.g., Head Start, child care, preschool). Data sharing can support efficient, effective services for children. However, the benefits of data sharing and use must be balanced with the need to support privacy. To support this, PTAC has assembled the following resources about privacy and data sharing with Early Childhood programs in mind. This list is just a start and additional resources will be added as they are developed.

Privacy and Confidentiality

The use of quality early intervention and education data enables policymakers, administrators, educators, service providers and parents to design and implement effective practices to improve child and family outcomes. While the benefits of data use are clear, there are growing concerns about the scope and type of child data collected, as well as the protection and sharing of those data. This page provides resources, including federal guidance, on practices and policy regarding the privacy and confidentiality of early childhood data.
